

Matrix: Evaluation of the Multiple Objectives versus the Current Process of Shoreline Permitting in Virginia

Multiple Objectives	Joint Permit Application						Local Permit Requirements		Inspections
	Property owner obtains information on shoreline erosion control devices	Site visits conducted by the local government	Site visits conducted by VIMS	Site visits conducted by VMRC	Wetlands board meeting	Completion of VMRC permit (if impacting subaqueous lands)	Local evaluation of Bay Act compliance	Completion of Erosion & Sediment Control Permit	Post-permit inspection
	Protect Private Property	★			★
	Accommodate Economic Needs	★			★
	Protect Subaqueous Lands			★		★			★
	Protect Tidal & Nontidal Wetlands		★	★	★	★			★
	Protect Primary Sand Dunes & Beaches		★	★	★	★			★
	Protect Submerged Aquatic Vegetation		★	★	★	★
	Protect Intertidal Habitats		★	★	★	★
	Protect Endangered Species
	Protect Water Quality		★				★	★	★
	Protect RPA, including buffer						★		★
	Control Sedimentation						★	★	★

★ Indicates the objective is fulfilled at that step in the process